SAYS KU KLUX WILL DOUBLE CROSS ROBERTSON AND VOTE FOR T. W. DAVIDSON

Our Town

Musical—The Salty District Singing Convention was a great success, more people attended and joined in the singing than ever before; and the program was a great improvement over past meetings. The people of Cameron are doing themselves and the public generally a great good in bringing to our town these choristers of olden time. They are preserving the tradition of community hymn singing, and at the same time they are promoting the annual assemblage of a large number of people in beneficial social and religious intercourse,—people of diverse character and interests in every day life, but united in their desire to praise God in song. Sermons could be perched on this subject, and weighty volumes written; but lack of space forbids more than scant comment here. In passing, let us say that we need more song; more song in our worship and in our hearts; more choir singing, more congregational singing, more community singing, more individual singing. Not all of us can be Carusos or Farrars, but we can have a song in our hearts, whether it be dirge or rondo; and when the meter is lined out, we can join our neighbors in song, and a creaky voice here and there won't spoil the harmony. God does not expect us all to sing His praise in dulcet tones, but He does expect us to sing them. May the Salty Singing Convention be always with us, and may it teach us all the beauty and holiness of song.

The Waco-Time Herald publishes a story to the effect that the Ku Klux Klan has lined up against 2.75 per cent beer. The royal edict comes from Zeke Marvin who recently entered a plea of guilty in Federal court at Dallas for selling liquor. Zeke is the Grand Dragon with the all seeing eye in Texas and runs a drug store in Dallas. The Klan's stand against 2.75 per cent beer will no doubt be nobly advocated by John Mathis of Houston, W. A. Mangar of Dallas and Felix Robertson candidate for governor, all known to have been attached to the white apron crowd in the era of Hill & Hill. The Ku Klux Klan put wets in control of the state convention by naming these men, turning down such men as Morris Sheppard, Cullen Thomas, Harper Kirby and Mrs. De Van Watts.

Little Klux Pro Boom
'Comin' Thru the Rye,
Zeke'll Get 'Nother Store
By and Bye.

Monday night was a big night for the Ku Klux. They came from many sections of Milam county. It is estimated about 150 gathered in the hall for a "konklave." Whether the meeting had any political significance could hardly be considered in the negative for the reason that the meeting was held under very stimulating circumstances as Harry P. Jordan of Waco, candidate for the state senate, was on hand to tell the boys a few things. Harry says publicity that he has but little to say "one way or the other" on the Klan question. We wonder what he told the boys in the Klavern. There were other speakers from Waco at the meeting and it is understood that a number of local Klansmen made talks. One of the big features of the meeting was the severe criticism indulged in against the editor of the Herald who some time ago quit the Klan. It could not be learned just what was said but it is thought the discussion waxed hot but so far we haven't received full effects of the shock. A number of Klansmen have stopped their subscriptions to the paper and in some cases advertising patronage has dwindled. As a result of the Monday night meeting our stock is not quoted very high and chances are the slump is on for keeps. Information leaking out from the appointed of King Marvin at Dallas tells a story of great strife in the Klan over the Governor's race. After banishing Collins from the Klan the Dallas managers came back

All those wishing to enter the horse races are requested to see Mr. M. N. Stricker and register as soon as possible at Stricker's Variety store.

All the auto racers will please register as soon as possible with Mr. Cates at C. U. Cates' garage.

Other business at the meeting was the selection of a committee on refreshments and concessions at the picnic which was turned over to Mr. J. P. Horton and Balhorn, chairman of the committee.

Mr. Meitzen was elected to succeed Mr. Boils as Past Vice Commander and Mr. Balhorn as treasurer of the Post.

After the meeting a smoker was held and refreshments were served at the H. & T. Confectionery.

USE OF DUMP GROUNDS IS SCORED AT COUNCIL

INSTRUCT SANITARY OFFICER TO PROSECUTE DUMPERS OF REFUSE NEAR CITY.

Use of the dump grounds near the Weems gin and Aycock property which were ordered discontinued several months ago was characterized as outrageous by members of the city council at a meeting held Wednesday afternoon.

Patience of citizens living in the vicinity of the grounds has been long suffering, it was said, and should not be expected to bear up under this imposition any longer. Alderman H. M. Hefley said that if this dump ground was suddenly transferred to other sections of the city he could name citizens who would not stand for it a minute.

Dr. G. E. Sutton was instructed to bring prosecution against all persons who continue to dump refuse in this ground.

In 1923 this ground was ordered discontinued but for some reason refuse continued to be dumped there but the city is determined it shall stop.

Jack Barnes of Buckholts was a Cameron visitor Wednesday.

and submitted his name in the elimination but Collins has not checked up his attacks on the Imperial political party. Felix Robertson is acknowledged to be weak on the run and Barton may get the Ku Klux support. The chief activity of the Klan is in the matter of State politics.

Property Owners Delay Paving; Council Demands Laying Pipes

Responsibility for the delay in street paving was declared by the city council Wednesday afternoon to rest with property owners in the paving area who have not made lead pipe connection and sewer connections as required by ordinance to be an advance of the paving.

The council at the suggestion of Mayor Davis will sit in session beginning at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon in the Cameron State Bank to discuss with those who will be summoned to appear why they have not complied with the ordinance. R. D. Brown, secretary and treasurer, has been instructed to mail out letters summoning all property owners to appear who have not complied with the lead pipe and sewer ordinance.

The city Attorney Paul Webb was not present. This matter has been in his hands for the past two months or more but the council will take over the matter. Inactivity and failure to accomplish the results sought by the ordinance are given as reasons by the council why the action as outlined for the Friday meeting is necessary.

City engineer A. F. Mitchell pronounced all gravel as placed on the streets to date as meeting specifications. The council had questioned whether some of the gravel is good but were assured by Mr. Mitchell that the gravel is up to requirements. However the gravel to be put on the streets from now on will be different gravel and from another pit.

It was explained by Mr. Mitchell that gravel must be allowed to set and if piping is placed after the base has been laid the foundation is disturbed and the paving delayed.

It was explained by street chairman Geo. T. Graves that unless the property owners comply with the ordinance requiring lead pipe and sewer connections the city will proceed under the statutes to lay the pipe and collect from the property owners.

TWO DAY FAIR PLANNED BY CLUB FOR CAMERON

DATES SET FOR SEPTEMBER 12 AND 13. MANY FEATURES ASSURED.

The Milam County Free Fair will be held in Cameron on September 12 and 13 according to announcement of Dr. G. E. Sutton, manager of the fair.

Many novel features will be introduced at the fair, one of them to be a kennel show managed by Penn Wolf, something never attempted before in Cameron. A big Rodeo will be staged for the occasion.

Another feature thought to promise great interest is a curio and relic display. A number of people have relics of interest.

The livestock and poultry display will be the big features of the fair, which will be held in the base ball park and on ground owned by the cemetery association adjoining the Lawless Green Field.

Dr. Sutton has named the following committees:

Ladies' Rest Room and Floral Display, Mrs. H. F. Smith, Jr.

Home Economics and Fancy Work, Miss Gladys Henry.

Agricultural Committee, George Banzhaf.

Dairy Cattle and Hogs, C. M. Beard.

Beef Cattle, Sam Mewhinney.

Dogs and Pets, Penn Wolf.

Amusements, J. B. White.

EDWARD N. SHAW GIVEN DIPLOMA IN MEDICINE

CAMERON BOY GRADUATES AT MEDICAL UNIVERSITY IN ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

The Class Roster for 1924 of Emory Medical University, Atlanta, Ga., contained the name of Edward Nisbet Shaw, Cameron, Texas. The graduating exercises were held on Tuesday June the third on the Emory Campus, the commencement program beginning on Saturday May thirty-first with a reception for the graduating class in the Theology building. The Baccalaureate Sermon was delivered in the outdoor amphitheatre on Sunday June first, by Bishop Edwin Munson of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

Medical Alumni Clinics were held from June third to sixth. On Friday evening June sixth the crowning commencement feature, the Alumni Banquet, was held at the Atlanta Biltmore Hotel.

Edward N. Shaw, M. D., is a familiar name to the people of Cameron, where the father of this young physician, Dr. E. N. Shaw, lived and practiced his profession for many years. From Cameron Dr. E. N. Shaw went to the Spanish American war as a surgeon in the United States Army and he did valiant service in fighting disease in army camps and in Cuba. During Dr. Shaw's long residence in Cameron, where he came when just out of the same University from which his son has so recently graduated, he made many friends who will kindly remember his ministrations to the afflicted people of Milam County and the career of his son will be watched with interest by a host of friends.

Ku Klux Hold Big Rally; Women Attend Meeting

Monday night the Ku Klux of Milam county held a big rally in the Klan hall in Cameron.

It is estimated that about 150 were in attendance and that mixed with the congregation of knights were a few women, the first time the attendance of women at a Klan gathering has been noted in this county.

One of the women in attendance was from Waco and this fact has given rise to suspicion that an attempt may be in progress to organize a women's auxiliary to the Klan. Some time in the early part of 1923 an attempt was made to organize in Cameron but was abandoned.

The meeting Monday night is thought to have had political significance.

Harry P. Jordan, candidate for state senator, was present and made a talk to the Knights. With him were two from Waco, a man and woman, whose names could not be learned.

In the call for the meeting Dr. James Watson, cyclops of the Cameron Klan, said it was "important" that all Klansmen in the county be present. The crowd must have been disappointing for there are some 150 Klansmen in the county.

Senator Edgar Witt of Waco, candidate for re-election to the office of state senator is anti-klan and Harry Jordan his opponent is said to be a member of the Klan or to have its full endorsement for the office.

CITY MAY CHANGE PLAN POLITICAL PERFDY IS SEWAGE DISPOSAL PLANT SUBTLE MENACE IN RACE

R. D. BROWN HAS PROMISE FROM DOZIER $10,000 SHOULD BE PRICE OF PLANT.

The City Council has information that the sewage disposal plant requirements for Cameron should not exceed in cost from $10,000 to $12,000.

The plans at present as perfected by A. F. Mitchell are for a plant given approval by the state board of health and said to be required by a city of this size.

R. D. Brown placed before the council Wednesday a proposal from W. E. Dozier that he be permitted to submit plans which would call for an expenditure of not to exceed $12,000.

Bonds in the sum of $25,000 have been voted. This issue was based on the estimate of the engineer whose plans have been approved by the state board of health. The disposal plant as planned by Mr. Mitchell was to cost approximately $25,000 because it was to have been erected in the river bottom lands and therefore must be so constructed as to resist flood waters. An open type plant would not cost over the amount outlined by Mr. Brown.

Protest was raised over the proposal to erect the plant at the city gravel pits and this site was abandoned. A closed type erected at the gravel pit would cost in proportion to the plant contemplated by Mitchell but if the ordinary type of plant would be erected at the pits only about $12,000 would be required.

The view is held by some that a plant to cost $12,000 would not meet the requirements of the city or get the approval of the state board of health and that the plans of Mr. Mitchell were drawn not to be exorbitant.

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION APPOINTED BY COUNCIL.

Wednesday afternoon the council appointed J. D. Hefley, F. S. Lesovsky as a board of equalization to pass upon the taxable values of the property in Cameron.

Mrs. W. C. Agee and daughters, Misses Kathryn and Doris, are visiting in Paige and San Antonio.

NEW GIN IS CHARTERED AND WILL BE ERECTED

BOEDEKER, BATTE AND SCHILLER TO OPEN GIN FOR THIS SEASON.

Messrs. Bernard Boedeker, R. L. Batte and Edward Schiller, incorporators, have secured a charter from the State and will build a gin on the block on which Jake Brod's Mattress Factory now stands.

In talking with Mr. Batte about the matter he said, "Yes, I am associated with these two gentlemen and we will build an up to date gin plant with all modern machinery in it. We went to Dallas last week and bought the machinery and will commence erecting the house next week. Yes, we will be ready to run when the first bale comes in for the work will be pushed to the utmost. Mr. Boedeker will be our Manager and he is a first class gin man and machinist. He will move to Cameron and make his home here. No, Mr. Schiller will still live in Lott where he and Mr. Boedeker own several gins. Mr. Batte said, yes, I have sold my gin plants in Ben Arnold, Clarkson and Buckholts in the last two years and intend to close out most of my other gins, but I have known these gentlemen and their people for some thirty years and when the opportunity offered, I could not resist the temptation to go in with them."

Miss Sallie Kate McLane visited friends in Dallas last week.

KU KLUX DEALS PROHIBITION BLOW IN TEXAS IS CLAIM.

In a statement issued today, summing up his impressions of the state political aftermath a consequence to the state convention at Waco, Charles G. Thomas, former speaker of the house and state campaign manager for Lynch Davidson, Governor, said convention rumors named T. W. Davidson, another gubernatorial aspirant, as the actual candidate of the Ku Klux Klan in Texas. He warned Felix Robertson of Dallas, whom he names as the "presumable Klan candidate," that "the double cross of Bob Henry is in store for you," and declared his own candidate, Lynch Davidson of Houston, the only one "free from bloc and group control, pre-election trades, and political horse swapping," adding that "by reason of the anti-prohibition influences the Ku Klux Klan repudiation of Mrs. Claude Van De Watts, president of the W. C. T. U., the wets are again in the saddle in Texas." Mr. Thomas' statement follows:

"To keep Lynch Davidson out of the runoff primary, horse-swapping is under way in Texas, and strange as it may seem, convention rumor names T. W. Davidson of Marshall the Ku Klux Klan candidate. Prohibition has been dealt an insidious blow in Texas and by reason of the Ku Klux Klan repudiation of Mrs. Claude Van De Watts, president of the W. C. T. U., and Harper Kirby of Austin, who sought places on the Texas delegation to the national democratic convention, the wets are again in the saddle in Texas. I again present, as I have done since the outset of this gubernatorial campaign, that Lynch Davidson of Houston is the only candidate free from pre-election trades or bargaining of AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK.

Encouraged by the success of American Education Week last year, the Bureau of Education of the Department of the Interior, in co-operation with the American Legion and the National Education Association, will promote a fifth National week for education in 1924. American Education Week will be observed during the week preceding Thanksgiving—November 17 to 23, inclusive.

There are certain phases of education which, it is generally agreed, require emphasis from a National standpoint. Among these are Americanization; patriotism; better trained and better paid teachers; improvement of rural schools; more adequately equipped buildings; eradication of illiteracy; and physical education and hygiene. In order to give these phases of education prominence in the observance of American Education Week it has been agreed to designate certain days in the week for calling particular attention to them. Monday November 17, will be American Constitution Day; Tuesday, November 18, Patriotism Day; Wednesday, November 19, School and Teachers Day; Thursday, November 20, Illiteracy Day; Friday, November 21, Physical Education Day; Saturday, November 22, Community Day; Sunday, November 23, God and Country Day.

It is hoped that this year the press, the church, national organizations of all descriptions, women's clubs, men's Clubs, the motion picture producers, distributors and exhibitors, and the public generally, will join in making American Education Week the success it should be. This campaign should reach every American home and every American life. The schools are the bulwark of American democracy, and it behooves every friend of America not only to see that the future of America is not imperiled by any weakening of our schools, but also to strengthen and extend our educational system so that every boy and girl in America may have the opportunity for that kind and degree of education that will best fit him or her for life and for the duties and responsibilities of citizenship in our republic.

any kind, bound to no clique, bloc, clan or faction in a self-serving, self-seeking purpose of vote getting, and now predominantly the outstanding sentiment of prohibition, guarding against the subtle attempts made to foster the return of liquor to our commonwealth.

"Although I had realized for some time that the marketing of votes was being attempted against Lynch Davidson by every opposing faction, I did not fully realize the extent to which trading was under way to get the whisky crowd back into the saddle with the avowed purpose of defeating Lynch Davidson, prohibition standard bearer, in his race for governor. Not only did I gain this information first hand myself, but the reports from 237 counties which I received while at the convention individually bore out my analysis of what the opposition was up to.

"As early as March 3, when the Non-partisan league conference at Dallas endorsed what I understood was a combination ticket of Klan and anti-Klan candidates, my suspicion of plan was aroused. Results of the Fuqua gubernatorial victory in Louisiana were fresh in my mind, wherein Fuqua, presumably anti-Klan, was elected by Klan support. It will be recalled that the popular understanding of his procedure in campaigning was to launch forth a bitter denunciation of floggings, backwoods parties, etc., yet never mentioning the syllables 'Ku Klux Klan' as the object of his denunciation. Although I had no idea such a plan was under way in Texas, various of my friends throughout the state continued to inform me that T. W. Davidson who was endorsed by the Non-partisan league consistently failed to mention the Ku Klux Klan as the object of a peroration which he delivered in every campaign address on 'constitutional government.'

"The Klan's presumed adherence to Felix Robertson progressed in routine fashion during the first part of the convention. According to current reports the preconvention caucus obtained Marshall Hicks' support to Robertson in exchange for 'the delegation chairmanship; Tom Love's support to Robertson in exchange for the state committee chairmanship. It attempted to gain the support of Governor Neff for Robertson in exchange for a place on the delegation but was refused such a trade. The hitch, however, which fits to the plan which created convention speculation, came when the caucus determined upon W. T. Fitzwater, leading proponent in Texas of the Non-partisan league, as a delegate to the New York convention. Knowing Fitzwater to be T. W. Davidson's leading Non-partisan league supporter, I discerned another trade in the making, and gossip declared that was explanation of the reason T. W. Davidson never mentioned the Ku Klux Klan in his campaign addresses.

"I submit my analysis to Felix Robertson for all it is worth to him, with the advice that when the roll is called Felix will find his experience paralleling that of Bob Henry, a double cross blazing where once he carried but the single flame. The voters of Texas are viewing the line-up exactly as I see it. Not satisfied with Felix Robertson the Klan is squirming, bidding and securing what support T. W. Davidson's Non-partisan league offers. There is yet time, also, for both the Klan and the Non-partisan league to ditch all apparent candidates, turning to a dark horse of whom yet there is nothing known."

SAYS MRS FERGUSON MORE POPULAR THAN HE AND WILL GET MORE VOTES

"I find Mrs. Ferguson more popular than I and will get more votes," declared James E. Ferguson in Cameron for a short stay Tuesday morning.

The ex-governor has been taking a poll at his meetings and otherwise and finds the people are favorable to Mrs. Ferguson as the candidate in the event the name of Ferguson is kept off the ballot.

Mr. Ferguson was in Cameron on his way to Franklin where he was to address a gathering of people Tuesday.

URGES BANK ADS IN NEWSPAPERS

Banker Tells National Association They Are Essential Aids to Business Building.

PRESENTS PRACTICAL PLAN

Savings Bank Division of the American Bankers Association Offers Prepared Newspaper Advertising Service to Cover a Year's Campaign.

More newspaper advertising by banks as a business builder was strongly urged at the recent convention of the American Bankers Association by W. R. Morehouse of the organization's Savings Bank Division. He backed up his plea with definite action to stimulate advertising by savings banks by calling the attention of the members to a prepared newspaper advertising service developed by his division comprising copy to meet their requirements for a year's advertising schedule.

"It is my firm conviction that banks can use newspaper advertising with great success," Mr. Morehouse said. "Newspapers go into the homes—by their use as a medium the people of a whole community may be reached in a single day. Because a bank cannot directly trace a large volume of new business to newspaper advertising does not prove that the medium is ineffective as a business-builder.

"The fact that there are certain kinds of newspaper advertising which do not produce good results ought not to brand the medium as ineffective, any more than the fact that because a certain booklet or certain business-building letter fails to pull would warrant you in branding all booklets and all letters as non-productive mediums.

How to Advertise

"Newspaper advertising must be attractive and easily read if it is to produce good results. If the subject presented is not to the point, is too deeply involved for the average mind to grasp readily, is too full of big and uncommon words, it is only natural that it will not be read. If bank advertising is to accomplish its purpose it must be very simple.

"Discuss only the subjects which

BANKERS' VIEW ON CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING

The attitude of the American Bankers Association on co-operative marketing favors proper organization to facilitate the orderly movement of farm products, but holds that the co-operatives are as amenable to economic laws as any form of business and cannot be used to gain special benefits for the farmer contrary to the influences of supply and demand and other normal factors. This view was formulated recently by Frank W. Simmonds of the Association before the National Council of Farmers Co-operative and Marketing Associations at Washington.

"It would be unfortunate for the farmer if he becomes imbued with the idea that co-operative marketing in itself is a panacea for all agricultural ills," Mr. Simmonds said. "Co-operative marketing, well organized and wisely managed, can be most helpful in solving market problems. It may prevent untimely dumping, it may secure better credit facilities, it may extend existing markets, it may even create new markets, but obviously its operations will be as amenable to economic law as those of other business enterprises.

What It Cannot Do

"Co-operative marketing cannot prevent other countries with cheaper land and labor from selling in foreign markets at a price unattractive to us. It cannot successfully over-ride the law of supply and demand or maintain for any length of time an artificially high price by withholding a product from market or unduly limiting production. Sane, orderly marketing must be accompanied by sane, orderly thinking.

"We may wisely take a leaf from Danish experience and emphasize efficient, economical, maximum production of standard grade products, for however important co-operative marketing may be in solving the exigencies of the present time, it is only one link in the chain of agricultural problems."

The American Bankers Association, Mr. Simmonds said, believes that solutions of farm problems "should be sought through private enterprise and not through government aid," and approves the endeavors of farmers for orderly marketing.

The following editorial appeared in the Houston Chronicle of date June 4th and will be interesting reading for the citizens of Milam County:

The Klan and Prohibition

Owing to the apathy of voters, a Ku Klux minority in Texas got control of the recent democratic convention. It ran things to suit itself, writing the platform, naming delegates and parceling out favors without let or hindrance.

What the convention did, therefore, may justly be taken as indicating what the Ku Klux Klan stands for and the methods by which it attains its end.

It wrote a strong prohibition plank in the platform, and then named anti-prohibition delegates. Indeed, the strong prohibition plank was undoubtedly written by antis.

Thus we behold a great cry for law enforcement, especially with regard to the liquor traffic, being raised by those who have opposed the law. Shall we regard them as reformed or merely playing politics?

THE SAME OUTFIT THAT IS TELLING US HOW DRY WE OUGHT TO BE, AND HOW SCANDALOUS IT IS THAT WE ARE NOT DRYER, HAS SENT SUCH MEN AS JOHN MATHIS AND MURRAY JONES OF HOUSTON TO REPRESENT US AT THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

MORE SIGNIFICANT STILL, IT HAS SENT SUCH MEN IN DELIBERATE PREFERENCE TO KNOWN AND CONSISTENT PROHIBITIONISTS.

BY DELARATION IT IS TERRIBLY DRY, BUT BY PATRONAGE IT IS WET.

Which is more truthfully indicative of what a convention prefers—the platitudes it puts on paper or the men whom it chooses to represent it?

Which do we commonly put more faith in—platforms or candidates?

Of course, those who ran things blame it all on McAdoo. It was McAdoo delegates they wanted, prohibition or no prohibition, and since the platform satisfied the prohibition issue, they left no scruples about making the state safe for McAdoo with antis.

We wonder how far this guff will get, how many of the people it will fool, how completely it will muddle up the situation.

The klan says it's dry, but prefers wet delegates. The klan says it wants liquor stopped, but prefers to have those who believe in liquor do the stopping. The klan says it had to select wets in order to be sure that McAdoo would get the votes.

But if a platform plank was sufficient to reassure the people, why weren't instructions sufficient to bind the delegates? If wets can be trusted because of that prohibition plank, why couldn't dries be trusted to vote for McAdoo as they were told?

Ask local Klansmen and local Klan candidates who have been shedding crocodile tears about prohibition if they approve the action of the Waco Convention in sending John Mathis, who stumped Milam county against prohibition and Murray Jones of Houston, as delegates to the National Convention in preference to R. Harper Kirby, who has given $200,000.00 of his personal money for the cause of prohibition and Mrs. Van De Watts, Chairman of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

CAMERON BANKER TALKS
AT ASSOCIATION MEETIRVIN N. CLAREY URGES IN-TERESTS OF YOUNG MAN IN BANKS OF TEXAS.

IRVIN N. CLAREY

Irvin N. Clarey, assistant cashier of the Citizens National Bank of Cameron, in an address before the Bankers Association of Texas at Austin, discussed the young banker and his relation to the business. The address of Mr. Clarey is as follows:

"There are perhaps but a few in this audience that will acknowledge being old bankers. What I shall briefly say, however, is about those in your institutions who are even more youthful than you. I have been invited to discuss the 'YOUNG BANK MAN AND HIS BUSINESS' and this subject should hold an appeal to you, because the routine of details in your several banks revolve around the work usually delegated to the junior bank man. The business of the young bank man, then, is your business. His personality, his actions, his very thoughts all make a deep imprint into the history of your institutions. The young bank man may be one of your potential assets, or he can be a disappointing liability.

"As an ideal person he would command the respect of the community; he would make friends of your customers; he would be considerate of his fellow workmen; he would do his daily tasks without show of resentment, easily, speedily and accurately. As a person opposite the ideal he would command little respect; friends and customers would be lost by his tactless demeanor; he would be a thorn in the side of his fellow workmen; errors made through his ignorance or indifference would result in embarrassing losses. Happily you will find few young bank men to bad as that but neither will you find many that near perfection. They cannot be perfect but the nearer perfection they are, the better your peace of mind and the better their welfare. What should interest you as broad minded bank officials is the keeping of your employees imbued with a sense of responsibility that the trust you impose on them shall not in some measure suffer.

"Gentlemen, as the potter moulds the clay with which he works, so, to a degree, can you mould the Junior banker. Some clay the potter finds, because of its composition, is unsuited to his work and it is cast aside and adapted to another use. The junior bank man is in your employ because he is adaptable to your employment. If he is of the right composition he is susceptible to being moulded, if skillfully handled. To realize the real possibilities of the junior bank man it is necessary to take a friendly interest in his doings. A just criticism here and a complimentary boost there goes a long way to make him a loyally aggressive partner in your business.

"Above all in order to approach the most desirable stage as a young bank man he must know the work he is having you do. He must know how his particular work is related to the business of banking, and more especially how his performances are related to the profit and loss account. There is only one way for him to become inspired with the subject of banking and that comes from the knowledge of the principles of banking. To know banking from its many ramifications is to be educated in banking. Education is not inborn; it is acquired and the best way to acquire it is to study. If a young bank man is to know banking and be proficient to handle your affairs with understanding, he must study banking.

"In this day when you mention banking education you think quickly of the greatest organization of its kind—The American Institute of Banking. Since banking education is essential to the business of the junior banker and since the business of the young bank man is assuredly your business, it is quite in order to briefly consider at this time something of the American Institute of Banking, more particularly as it affects the junior bank man coming under jurisdiction of the Texas Bankers Association.

"Two decades ago, almost simultaneously with the beginning of the twentieth century, the American Bankers Association had presented to it a petition signed by a number of bank clerks asking the Association to form an Institute of Bankers similar in character to the one in successful operation in England. The Association granted the request and there came into existence a Bank Clerks' Institute, the object of which was the educational development of bank employees. With the passing of time and the increasing of members, the Bank Clerks' Institute was re-organized into an independent Section of the American Bankers Association under the name of the American Institute of Banking. Today we find the Institute, which is declared by many to be the most constructive section of the Association, composed of city and correspondence Chapters numbering 130 and a combined membership of over 52,000—more than the entire population of Austin. The accomplishments of the Institute are the recent accomplishments of the banking profession. Lack of time prevents the enumeration of any of the tangible proofs that show the standing of the Institute as an organization. It is interesting to mark in passing, however, the fact that the president of the American Bankers Association was an institute graduate, and presided first over the Institute. The Federal Reserve Board at Washington has numbered among its members graduates of the Institute. The Gold Settlement Fund, the agency that has proved of such wonderful assistance to the bankers of America is a product of an Institute man, and many instances might be recounted showing how the American Institute of Banking has established itself as a maker for good in all that pertains to banking.

"Some six years ago your Association passed resolutions giving birth to the Texas State Chapter of the American Institute of Banking. This Chapter, over which you maintain advisory control, offers by correspondence several splendid practical courses in banking subjects under supervision of the national organization. Subsequent to the founding of this Chapter, scores of Texas bankers, young and old, have received helpful instruction and the Chapter, has performed a valuable service to the Texas Bankers Association and the Texas bankers. Each year, as you know, the annual convention of the Texas State Chapter has been held in conjunction with your convention. It was soon apparent, though, that the life of the Texas State Chapter depended almost entirely upon the incentive and spirit gathered at those annual meetings. It was soon apparent, also, that the holding of this meeting in conjunction with your annual meeting was a mistake, and although this arrangement has been used until this year, it has been at the sacrifice of the Chapter's continued success. With the annual meetings proving a failure, the work of the organization has become almost extinct, though doing still a good work. To find the reason for the unsuccessfulness of the annual Chapter meetings, you need only to look about you in this room. At the time of the Texas Bankers Association's convention, the junior banker, the one most interested in the Institute work, is at home holding the fort.

"Before closing I should like to ask of you individually and as the Texas Bankers Association to lend your support to the Institute work. You are responsible for the Texas State Chapter and it needs your co-operation. Its possibilities as an agency for the helping of the young bank man and his business are manifold. As a parting word, let me ask you to remember this: During one of the early Spring months next year this Chapter plans to act as host to a meeting of the junior bankers of Texas. Except for being of shorter duration this meeting will be, it is hoped, not unlike a gathering of the junior Texas Bankers Association. I feel sure if you will send your young bank men to this gathering you will have done much to inspire him with the usefulness of banking as a profession and awaken him to the seriousness of his own particular work.

"A little time and thought invested in your young friends will be rewarded with non-taxable dividends of satisfaction and will make of you an appreciated benefactor long before Father Time forces you to relinquish the reins of administration into their hands.

The Car for the Woman

The country woman needs her own car.

When the farm has only one car it is usually in use on the business of the farm, just when the wife or daughter needs to go to town or to a meeting or church or to make calls.

Chevrolet Utility Coupe is an ideal car for the purpose, as it has full weather protection, a high-grade body, comfortably upholstered, plate glass windows, which can be instantly lowered or raised to any desired position, a mammoth rear compartment for luggage, bundles, a jar of butter, a crate of eggs, or even a trunk.

The inside of the car can always be kept clean, because all packages can be carried in this rear compartment.

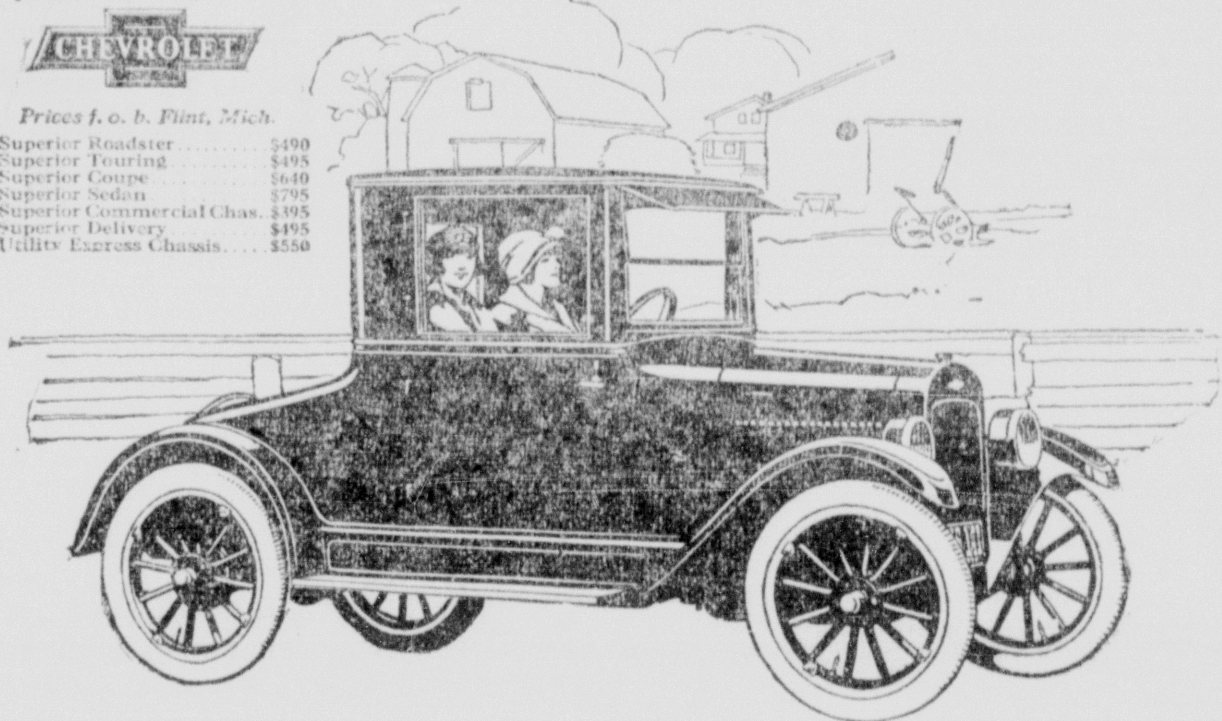

The Utility Coupe is comfortable, easy to operate, and has ample power to handle bad roads.

Making Money

Some men make their money in business—some in stocks—some by tolls saving of their daily wage.

But we submit to you the unquestionable fact that more men have reached a comfortable competence through the ownership of property—LAND—which bring in a fixed income—than in any other way.

BUSINESS requires your sole attention—stocks mean sleepless nights and days of worry—property works by itself for you without your care.

SELECT IT—set it to work—it takes care of itself and will take care of YOU.

A good example of this sort of investment is found in LITTLEFIELD, TEXAS, COTTON FARMS on the South Plains.

Our land is for sale in one or more tracts at from $25.00 to $35.00 per acre, the price depending upon location. The terms of sale are, 20 per cent cash, with deferred payments payable over a period of ten years, and are subject to change without notice. The interest rate is 6 per cent. All deferred payments are payable on or before due dates. Deferred payments may be made over a period of 15 years on a part of our land which we bought on very favorable terms.

Cameron Masons Pay Tribute To Waco's Chief Executive

Thirty-five Wacoans journeyed to Cameron Thursday night in the two S. S. Bryant motor busses and private cars to attend the celebration prepared by Masons of this city.

The hosts of the evening were the Masons of Cameron and the lodge room was crowded with visitors from the cities surrounding Cameron, especially from sister lodges of Milam county.

On the wall of the "East" of the lodge there was displayed the following placard:

"St. Andrew Lodge No. 170,
"A. F. and A. M.
"Cameron, Texas,
"Thomas P. Stone, night,
"May 29, 1924."

Hon. Thomas P. Stone, mayor of Waco, was raised in Cameron, hence the occasion was primarily to do him honor. Mr. Stone was called on to preside during the evening, assisting the regular officers of the lodge. He expressed heartfelt appreciation of the great honor accorded him and recalled that his father had been a member and officer in that lodge during his life time.

One candidate was given the Masters' degree, the work being put on by the Waco degree team for St. Andrew Lodge No. 170, with presiding Master Thos. P. Stone, past master of J. H. Garley Lodge No. 337. The degree team is as follows: Frank M. Miller, president; Harry L. Thomas, secretary; Joe Mathews, treasurer; Frank Oldham, floor manager; H. Grady Clarke transportation; Fred Eggert, director of music; H. Pountney, director of quartette.

The candidate was Erle Curtis

Burke of Cameron, with the following officers: W. M. Harry L. Thomas; S. W. Jas. A. Lawson, J. W. Maurice, P. Flynn, S. D.; Sam Dribble, J. D.; J. E. Caple, master of credentials; L. A. Nelson. Other working members of the degree team are: F. H. Grady, R. E. Haskins, Jr., J. H. Campbell, Guy Robertson, J. V. Geiger, J. L. Richardson, J. O. Cross, Geo. Caple, Fred Wallace, Sam Rizzotto, F. E. Studer, H. C. Avery, Max Showorow, Ray Cerwin, R. S. Wallace, G. G. Hood, John Graunt, quartette; first tenor, G. M. Smith; second tenor, James Brodie, baritone, J. B. Atkinson; bass, H. Pountney; lecturer, B. S. Wallace; speakers, Dr. L. W. Jones, Thos. P. Stone, Harry P. Jordan.

The entire evening was one of unalloyed pleasure to all attending. The speeches of the degree team were all liberally applauded, and their remarks of deep interest to all Masons.

The officers of San Andres lodge 170, hosts of the evening, are as follows: S. P. Cross, W. M., Max Collins, S. W., John B. Henderson, J. W., T. F. Hardy, treasurer, H. E. Garner, secretary; R. E. Sharpe, S. D., Vernon Roberts, J. D., Albert Collins, S. S., Drayton McLane, J., E. A. Oliver, tiller.

Altogether the trip was a most happy one and all who went are singing praises of San Andres lodge No. 170 for their hospitality and especially for so honoring our distinguished townsman, Hon. Thos. P. Stone, and for the excellent collation which the visitors found in the ante room on their arrival in Cameron.

noon at three o'clock. Religious services were conducted at the Presbyterian church, a touching feature being the vacant chair which he had been accustomed to occupy at every service since he became incapacitated for active service several years ago. This chair, with its burden of pure Lilies of the Valley, served to typify the purity of heart of the man. The sermon was preached by Rev. L. D. Grafton, of Austin, previous to which Hon. F. A. Camp paid a short tribute to "Copeland, the Man and Pastor." A special choir rendered favorite music of the deceased. Following the service the remains were borne to the old city cemetery and there interred beside loved ones who had preceded him to the Great Beyond. Rev. Burk of Hutto, delivered a prayer, and Rev. D. C. Wallace pronounced the benediction.

The funeral was largely attended, many coming from Cameron and other parts of the county to pay their last respects to the memory of a man recognized as one of Milam county's noblest characters.—Rockdale Reporter.

Mrs. Paul F. Jones of New York City is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wallace, for an extended visit.

Mrs. Jones was formerly Miss Cornelia Wallace who went to New York for art study—her success in her chosen field brings pleasure to her many Cameron friends, and her rare visits are eagerly anticipated.

WHY BANKS?

LESSON VIII

By J. H. PUELICHER, Chairman,
Committee on Public Education, American Bankers Association.

Why open a savings account in a savings bank?

SAVINGS=money set aside by keeping expenditures below income which is essential to individual as well as to business success.

J. H. Puelicher

ACCOUNT=accurate record, as applied to savings in a bank, of deposits and withdrawals, showing also earnings from interest; savings banks will open an account with one dollar—the amount most depositors have started with.

SAVINGS BANK=a safe place to deposit savings where they will earn interest; the bank gives the depositor a pass-book, that is, an account book showing deposits, interest credited, withdrawals and balance. Many banks not called savings banks now conduct savings departments.

A savings account in a bank indicates and encourages thrift which is an essential aid to success. Unlike money hoarded, money in the bank is safe from loss by fire or thieves, earns interest and is put to use by the banks in developing the community.

you can take your pleasures in a manly way. You will find when you grow up that thing you learn now will be the things you must know then. You will have to obey the laws, and it is important that you learn the lesson of obedience.

Remember, this is your country, and it will be exactly what you make it. I think it was President McKinley who said, "a boy doesn't amount to anything unless he is good to his mother."

A good boy now will make a good citizen later on. When I was a boy I did not care so much about going to school. I was rather glad when school was over. Remember the great expense and pains to which the government and your parents go to for your good. You should take advantage of your opportunity. I have two boys of my own. I tell them there are only two things necessary—work hard and behave yourselves. By that and there will not be any doubt about the future of this country.

WHAT MY NEIGHBOR SAYS

Is of Interest to Cameron Folks.

When one has had the misfortune to suffer from backache, headaches, dizziness, urinary disorders and other kidney ills—and has found relief from all this sickness and suffering, that person's advice is of untold value to friends and neighbors. The following case is only one of many thousands, but it is that of a Cameron resident. Who could ask for a better example?

J. D. Cone, carpenter, Thibodaux, La., says: "I had been troubled for some time with my kidneys. There was a weakness across my back and, at times, it became very painful. There was an irregularity of the kidney secretions and, at times, they were profuse in passage and highly colored. I was compelled to lay off work for several days. I procured

WHOLESOME ADVICE.

The following advice to boys given by President Coolidge in a recent address is sensible and practical:

"The boy is father of the man. Remember when you grow up you will be about the same kind of man that you are a boy. You do not need to rob yourself of your boyhood, but Doan's Pills and, through their use, I was soon feeling better in every way."

Over Seven Years Later, Mr. Cone added: "Never have Doan's failed to do all I could wish them to."

MANY WATCH PARADE OF THE KU KLUX KLAN.

Last evening more than 1,000 hooded and white-robed klansmen paraded the streets of Lorena, while a crowd of spectators, estimated at 10,000, who thronged the streets or sat in cars along the line of march, eagerly watched the procession as it filed past.

The parade formed at the school house at the south end of town, marched to the head in the road nearest Waco and then doubled back to town. The procession was led by three unmasks klansmen, mounted on horses, coming single file. They were followed by a dozen men mounted, two abreast. The fiery cross and the drill team with their torches coming next made an impressive sight. They served as the vanguard for the klans footmen and the klans women who marched silently two abreast. An automobile carrying several members of the original klans brought up the rear.

The stream of cars bringing the spectators from Waco and surrounding points to view the spectacle was several miles in length and the Waco-Lorena road was literally choked with the avalanche of cars.

A series of nature studies is broadcast each week from Pennsylvania State College. Studies of birds, trees and flowers, animals, insects, and even rock formations are included in these talks.

PICTURES BY WIRE NOT NEW IDEA, SAYS SCIENTIST.

More than 40 years ago D. J. Cable of Pittsburg, inventor and scientist, devised an instrument with which he transmitted pictures by telegraph. Cable today ridiculed the statement that the transmitting of pictures by wire was "revolutionary" and a modern achievement of science.

"These scientists truly are amusing," he said, "claiming to have invented a process which has been known since 1881. At that time I described the entire invention in an article published in the Pittsburg Post and even sketch diagrams of the process on chalk plat, which were printed with the article."

Cable then quoted from the article how pictures were sent over the wire in 1881. It was as follows:

"The sending apparatus is exactly the same as the one at the receiving end, except that instead of a pen in the armature there is inserted a platinum point as a tracer, and the tablet or bed plate simply holds a gold plated zinc plate with the message written thereon with common ink. Now as the tablet moves backward and forward, and as the platinum point comes in contact with the ink lines, the ink being a good insulator, the current is broken and the little pencil at the receiving station drops upon the paper for an instant and the result is a black line or dot made upon the paper whose tablet has synchronous movement with the one at the sending station.

"This operation is kept up until the entire sheet is covered. When the platinum tracer lifts from the metallic plate both machines stop."

TEXAS BAPTISTS LEAD IN SUNDAY SCHOOL MEMBERS.

The thirty largest Baptist Sunday Schools in Texas have one-sixth of the membership of the Baptist Sunday Schools of the entire State, although there are 2,741 Bible schools in Texas affiliated with the Baptist General Convention of Texas, Dr. F. S. Groner, general secretary of the executive board reports. The total membership of the largest schools of the state is 53,158, despite the fact that eight of the thirty largest schools of Texas have memberships of less than 1,000 and more than 900 pupils.

A year ago there were only twenty-four Baptist Sunday Schools in the State with more than 900 members, and these had an aggregate membership of 37,987 pupils. The gains of the schools which already had more than 900 pupils with the addition of those schools which increased their membership to more than 900 during the year are included in the increase of 15,000 during the year.

The Virginia Baptists are the only group which has a greater number of schools with more than 900 members than Texas and in that state the total enrollment in the thirty-one large schools is 37,730, which is more than 15,000 less than the number enrolled in the largest schools in Texas. Five of the thirty-one large schools of Virginia have less than 1,000 and more than 900 pupils on their rolls.

Two of the largest schools affiliated with the Southern Baptist Convention are in Dallas. They are the First Baptist Sunday with 6,782 pupils and the Cliff Temple Baptist Sunday school with 4,296 members.

The rapid increase in the membership of the Sunday schools is attributed largely to the interest manifest in the Baptist 75 Million Campaign, which will be closed December 31, 1924 with all the Sunday schools and churches endeavoring to complete the pledge of this State to the campaign.

FOR THE CHILDREN'S PARTY.

Children are always delighted with unusual table decorations of an edible nature. A pot of flowers that can be eaten is easily arranged and greatly delights the little people.

To make the flowers, make or buy various colored candies. One or two white candies may be used in each pot. Colored gumdrops always add variety. Chocolates may be wrapped in bits of bright-colored paper.

Thrust a toothpick into each candy for a stem to the improvised flower and arrange the bouquet in whatever receptacle is desired.

Oiled-paper cups filled with ice cream make good flowerpots. Chocolate sauce can be poured over the cream in imitation of earth if we wish to make the flower pot look quite like the real thing.

Sometimes a child who dislikes eating his breakfast cereal or plain dessert will accept it willingly if it is served in a cup with one of these candy flowers thrust in the center.

Very remarkable animals for recreation are made with prune bodies, raisin heads and stately toothpick legs. And children who avowedly do not like prunes are delighted with an opportunity of eating several of these strange creatures.—County Gentleman.

HAVE WE THE VISION AND FAITH OF OUR FATHERS?

Austin College Sherman, Texas, will celebrate its Diamond Jubilee in June.

This College was established when there were but ten Presbyterian ministers, seventeen churches and 344 Presbyterians in Texas. That year the total contributions to benevolences amounted to about $600.

It took courage and vision to establish Austin College, but it was the beginning of Presbyterian education in Texas.

Much has been done by the Church since 1849. Much remains to be done.

Times and conditions have changed.

Synod has unanimously issued a call for $1,350,000 for Austin College and other institutions under its control.

It would be a very fine thing in fact, a glorious climax of the Diamond Jubilee—if it could be announced that the 43,000 Presbyterians of 1924 has as much vision, as much generosity, as much Church loyalty as did the 344 Presbyterians of 1849.

It will be a DISASTROUS thing if the Movement from Christian Education in Texas does not reach the goal.

It can be done only by pledges from EVERY TEXAS Presbyterian able to pledge.

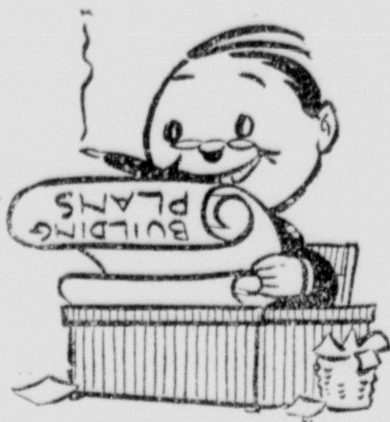

JUDGES DISQUALIFY.

Austin, Texas, June 3.—C. M. Cureton, chief justice, and T. B. Greenwood, associate justice of the State supreme court, Monday disqualified themselves to act on the list of certified questions submitted to the court relative to whether the name of James E. Ferguson should go on the election ballot as a candidate for governor. The questions were submitted by the court of civil appeals at Galveston after Judge Ewing Boyd of Houston ruled that Ferguson's name should not go on the election ballot.

Unless Ferguson is willing that the question should be returned to the appellate court for decision it seems that the questions will not be settled until long after the election. The supreme court adjourns June 28 until a date in October. It is doubted if judges could be found to sit and adjudicate the matter before the adjournment date. But the questions, by both sides agreeing, could be withdrawn from the supreme court and submitted to the court of civil appeals. It does not adjourn until July 7.

Justice Cureton held himself disqualified because at the time of Ferguson's impeachment as governor he represented the house of representatives at the hearing. Associate Justice Greenwood held that he could not sit because in the impeachment proceedings he had been retained by the Students' council of the University of Texas and took some part in the prosecution of Ferguson and aided in writing an opinion on the evidence.

The firemen puts out fires. The roofer who applies asbestos prevents them. Preventing fire is easier and a lot less costly than fighting it. NAME OF MRS. FERGUSON FILED AS A CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR OF TEXAS.

Mrs. Miram A. Ferguson of Temple, wife of ex-Gov. J. E. Ferguson, today filed her application as a candidate for governor with Joe W. Hale of Waco, secretary of the state democratic executive committee. The application of her husband was sent to Mr. Hale some time ago. The question of his eligibility for place on the ticket is now pending before the supreme court.

The same course was pursued by Mrs. Ferguson, two years ago, when her husband was a candidate for United States senator, but she withdrew from the senatorial race, after the state democratic executive committee decided that his name should appear on the ticket.

THE PLACE TO BEGIN.

Failure to adjust local supplies to local demand is one of the general causes of loss to farmers and of higher costs to consumers.

It is an old story that West Coast apples are more often found than the home-grown variety in the stores

And They Get Paid For Doing This

As a motion picture director, Harry Beaumont has instructed so often in the gentle art of kissing correctly, that he ought either to get a medal for putting millions wise, or else ought to write an etiquette book for sweethearts. Above he is shown approving of the osculatory perfection of Willard Louis and Carmel Myers in a scene for "Babbitt," Warner Brothers adaptation of the Sinclair Lewis best seller.

of the finest New England and Pennsylvania apple sections.

And that consumers living in the splendid Kaw Valley potato region eat Minnesota potatoes a good share of the year.

And that Alabama cotton farmers buy Western hay to feed their mules while Alabama Black Belt hay has to find a market outside the state.

All this means extra labor, freight and handling costs, paid for by the consumer but lost to the farmer. And it often means farmers discouraged into abandoning certain lines because of their inability to find markets.

Here and there farmers and their local business men have awakened to the folly of this ill-adjusted distribution. They did in Eastland County,

Texas. County Agent R. H. Bush tells what happened:

"We found that dealers in Eastland, Ranger and Cisco were shipping into the county quite a lot of eggs, especially during March and April, and that if correctly distributed none of our farmers eggs need be shipped out of the county.

"So we recommended that our county poultry raisers' and breeders' association put on a campaign to cause each town to buy its community's eggs first, the country's eggs second, and then, if they could not find a sufficient local supply to meet the needs, to buy outside eggs.

"The merchants and produce men responded favorably and are buying at home. It has done much toward providing a regular and dependable market for our farmers' eggs and is causing us to study how the same plan may be applied to encourage other-grown products."

A good place to begin correcting the faults of our marketing system is at home.—Country Gentleman.

Salts Fine for Aching Kidneys

When Back Hurts Flush Your Kidneys as You Clean Your Bowels

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, sometimes get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally; else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region begin drinking lots of water. Also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is intended to flush clogged kidneys and help stimulate them to activity. It also helps neutralize the acids in the urine so they no longer irritate, thus helping to relieve bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everybody should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in trying to correct kidney trouble while it is only trouble. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

NINE THORNDALIANS TAKE TREATMENT AT PASTEUR INSTITUTE.

Since the time for closing the forms of our last issue it became known that seven more boys and girls in Thorndale were in danger of contracting rabies as a result of contact with the Cowen dog which attacked Walter Seales and Fred Dikes as reported last week.

Following the attack made on Walter and Fred, the dog was killed and the head sent to Austin for examination. Dr. Wallace of the Pasteur Institute wired Dr. H. R. Hake Thursday morning that the dog's brain showed "positive evidence of rabies" and this fact caused others who had been bitten but paid no attention to it at the time to become more concerned for their security, and when all reports were made and verified seven more had either been bitten or had been playing with a bull which the dog had frequently held in its mouth during the previous twenty-four hours, and less in some instances, and for fear of infection they were sent to Austin for treatment, making nine altogether who were thus inconvenienced and possibly in danger of a horrible death as a result of the one mad dog.

Four of the boys went to Austin on the afternoon train Thursday and five other victims were taken by Mr. J. T. Goodnight in his car. Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Cowen accompanied the party to Austin and Mrs. Cowen expects to remain with the patients the entire 21 days required to finish the treatment.

Those going either Thursday or Friday morning were: Fred Dikes, Walter Seales, Jim Davis, Mary Elliott, Champ Clark, Daniel Elliott, Gus and Sam Cowen and Howard Suddie. Mary Elliott and Champ Clark returned Friday night having been pronounced in no danger of contracting the disease by the authorities at the Institute—Thorndale Champion.

TEXAS BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENTS TO MEET AT WACO.

Waco Baptist Sunday School workers are perfecting elaborate arrangements for the entertainment of the Baptist Sunday School Superintendents of Texas in their fifth Annual Convention which will be held at Baylor University in that city, June 15th to 18th. This gathering also includes all other general and department officers of the modern graded departmental Sunday School. Many new and attractive features have been added to the program which will include addresses, general and departmental conferences. Mr. Arthur Flake, of Nashville, Tenn., Secretary of the Department of Sunday School Administration of the Baptist S. S. Board, also Miss Lillian Forbes, Southside Elementary S. S. Secretary, Miss Mary Virginia Lee, Intermediate Specialist of the Baptist S. S. Board; Mr. Harry L. Strickland, Secretary of the Organized Bible Classes of Southern Baptists, and Miss Emma Noland, a specialist in Sunday School Record Systems, all of Nashville, Tenn., will be present and deliver addresses and conduct conferences.

THE STADIUM.

High-school students of Texas who come to Austin next spring for the annual track and field meet of the university of Texas Interscholastic League will be greeted by the sight of a huge horse shoe stadium in which the events will be held, instead of in Clark Field with its wood bleachers. Excavation work on the Texas Memorial Stadium is practically completed, and the work of construction will start immediately. The contract for the first unit, which will seat 25,000 persons, has been let to the Walsh & Burney Construction Company of San Antonio at $291,000, and this unit will be complete by Thanksgiving of this year, so that it may be used to hold the annual Texas-Aggie foot ball game on that day.

At the next meeting of the League the Stadium track and field will be in shape to accommodate the thousands and entries that are expected, while the Stadium stands will give ample accommodation to those who see the meet. The complete stadium will cost $500,000, and will represent contributions from students, ex-students, and residents of the State in general.

At the present time the committee in charge of the Stadium is working to complete the final campaign among ex-students and other persons outside of Austin. However, the construction work will be carried on at the same time and will not be held up until the completion of the campaign.

TWO SUMMER COURSES IN RURAL EDUCATION OFFERED

Nearly three-quarters of the children and young people of school age in Texas are living in rural communities. SUTTON-ADAMS WEDDING.

About five o'clock p. m. Wednesday, May 21, Mr. M. C. Sutton of Thorndale and Miss Gladys Adams of San Gabriel were married at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Walter Adams.

The bride and groom are two of the nice and splendid young people of this county and they appeared at their best at the wedding. A goodly little company of the friends of the family assembled at the Adams home to witness the wedding ceremony and the occasion was a cheerful and happy one. We wish for the young couple a happy and successful career together.—Thorndale Champion.

Messrs. Fred Henry and M. G. Cox of Cameron stopped over here a few minutes Friday of last week en route home from San Antonio where they attended a meeting of the Knights of Pythias Lodge which was held in the Alamo City during the week. Mr. Henry is an insurance man at Cameron and has been there for more than twenty-years and has many friends all over the county. Mr. Cox is an attorney with many years practice in this county, making his home at Cameron for a number of years. CAMERON BAPTISTS PLAN SUNDAY SCHOOL ANNEX

GROWTH OF CHURCH NECESSITATES IMPROVED FACILITIES FOR SERVICES.

Cameron Baptists through plans projected at the meeting of the laymen of the church on Friday night May 30 will in all probability begin work soon on a Sunday school annex to the church building to accommodate from 500 to 600 pupils in the Sunday school.

Growth of the church during the past five months necessitates improved facilities and the plans brought before the meeting by the pastor, E. S. Hutcherson, were given approval and since the meeting favorable comment has been heard from the church members.

Another plan of the church as suggested by the pastor is the services of an assistant pastor and Sunday school man to be paid by the church. This also was given approval but the matter of the church building will be given first consideration.

The plan of an assistant to the pastor as noted in many of the Texas towns is that for each 200 additional membership the church retains the services of an additional worker. During the past five months the church has had 99 additions. The responsibility of this large increase as well as other duties of the pastor are given as the reason for the movement to secure additional help.

The meeting of the laymen was held down town in the Hefley building. There were about 150 men present with Rev. J. T. Love of the Episcopal church and Rev. H. R. McFadyen of the Presbyterian church were among the honor guests.

The banquet was served by the ladies of the church with music by the orchestra, directed by Prof. Jack Foster.

The principal address of the evening was delivered by Rev. E. S. Hutcherson who brought to the men the progress of the church and he plans for its expansion. He discussed the plans for the new building and also for the additional help to the pastor. The building is to be a temporary structure. This plan was also discussed at a meeting of the deacons on Monday night and the pastor was instructed to get plans ready.

Rev. Hutcherson brought out in his address the fact that since the first of January and until the close of May the church collections have increased $1300 over the previous year. This includes the Sunday school offerings.

Rev. H. R. McFadyen delivered a short talk commending the plans of the church and urging the laymen to co-operate with the pastor in the work. Rev. J. T. Love also spoke to the laymen receiving an enthusiastic hearing.

Dr. John L. Denson and H. M. Rork, laymen, made short talks also.

PRESBYTERIAN SOCIETY.

On Thursday afternoon the members of the Presbyterian Aid Society of the Maysfield church were at home to their friends at the Hubert Atkinson residence. Quite a number of ladies were present from Cameron. A free will offering was tendered to help on the "birthday" work of the society.

Mrs. Ethel Massengale read a history of the work accomplished since the organization of the society and mentioned the fact that it had never done better work than when directed by a Baptist president, Mrs. H. L. Eager. Only three of the original members survive.

A spelling match and sewing contest were enjoyed. Home made lemon with Maysfield cake were served, sweet peas being the plate favors.

EPISCOPAL AUXILIARY.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church held its last meeting of the season, with Mrs. Geo. T. Jeters, Monday afternoon, June 2. Mrs. Jeter presided, and after the usual business, outlined briefly the "Christian Social Service" undertakings of this church in the United States. Hospitals, social settlements, missions, orphan homes, homes for elderly people, were all considered as carrying out the principles of Christ himself.

The meeting adjourned at a late hour, the members having greatly enjoyed the session in Mrs. Graves' home.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Women's Home Mission Society met in the prayer meeting room on Monday afternoon for the Monthly business session of the society. Devotional exercises led by the president, assisted by Mesdames Boykin and Baskin. The Missionary Bulletin was presented by Mrs. Charles Price. Reports from officers and committee chairmen were heard. Miss Mollie Moore, was directed to send a box of supplies to the Virginia K. Johnson Home at Dallas this week to be donated by the members of each circle.

Mrs. R. L. Batte asked that Methodists attend the young People's Encampment at Belton in June.

Mrs. R. H. McIntosh appointed leaders for Bible Study to serve during her absence.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE.

The third Quarterly Conference for the Cameron Circuit will be held at Salem church next Saturday at 2 p. m. Rev. W. F. Bryan, the presiding elder, will preach at 11 a. m. Saturday and dinner will be served "on the ground" and the Conference will be held in the afternoon. Bro. Bryan will also preach there Sunday at 11 a. m. Everybody invited to these services and to the conference. The writer will preach at Mission Sunday at 3:00 p. m. and at Buckholts at night.

J. C. HUDDLESTON, Pastor.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

There will be services at the Presbyterian church morning and evening. Our evening services now come at eight o'clock.

At the morning service we expect to have with us Dr. D. A. Penick of the University of Texas, to tell us of the progress of the present Educational movement in the state among the Presbyterians. The campaign will close in a few weeks and we will be able to get the last word from Dr. Penick.

H. R. McFADYEN, Pastor.

SPECIAL SERVICES SUNDAY AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH FOR YOUNG PEOPLE.

The services in honor of the Presbyterian boys and girls who are this year coming out of the schools was enjoyed by all. Dr. Jas. Watson expressed the interest of the church in her young people and spoke a word of commendation and encouragement. Three of the young people won honors in the schools, Miss Frances Morrison, Miss Genevive Dake and Mr. Henry McFadyen. The first being Salutatorian of her class was presented a beautiful bouquet of water lilies, the second won second place in a musical contest and was presented with a handsome bouquet of sweet peas, the last won second place in a state contest with an essay on safety habits for the highways and was presented with a box of candy. The presentations were made by Mrs. Ben Atkinson. Mr. John McLane made the prayer for the young people. The pastors sermon had for its main thought the certainty of reward coming to those who continue faithful in worthy efforts.

On Inconsistency and Intolerance at Waco Convention

The following is an extract from an article by Dr. John C. Granberry, which appeared in the Dallas News of date June 4.

It will also be of interest to the voters of Milam County.

"Of course, consistency is not to be expected of fanatics. At the same time that they insisted on a 100 per cent past record on prohibition and woman suffrage, they fellowshipped and heaped honors upon notorious "antis," while Cullen Thomas, Cone Johnson, M. M. Crane, Morris Sheppard and others who fought for prohibition and woman suffrage when it cost something, were forgotten. Cullen Thomas, who was rejected for the United States Senate two years ago, and who simply looked on at Waco, is the tragedy of Texas Democracy. We are going to need that man yet.

"Those who are right can afford to be generous. In the long run a bitter, intolerant attitude will not serve the cause of truth.

"The able McAdoo men who, to gain a victory for their leader, or rather to assure it, made compromises with fanatics and gave them a free hand, as a concession to them summarily if not contemptuously throwing out a Bill of Rights plank, doubtless believed they were doing what was best under the circumstances, but they rendered a disservice to Mr. McAdoo and to Texas Democracy. Indeed, they came very near being thrown out themselves by the fanatics for whose support they betrayed us. Marshall Hicks saved Frank C. Davis by refusing to submit the question to a vote, while Tom Love was probably saved only by the refusal of Alva Bryan of Waco to accept the place of national committeeman.

"The day of sanity and reckoning will come.

SOCIETY NEWS

BY MRS. JEFF T. KEMP

JAPANESE 42 PARTY.

An outstanding hospitality on the social calendar for Saturday afternoon was the Japanese 42 party given in the home of Mrs. Leslie Green having two charming young matrons, Mesdames Charles Frank Green and Leslie Green as hosts. The four rooms used in the reception suite were given floral embellishment in the chosen colors of real lavender purple and green, the Japanese lanterns, chimes, table covers and game accessories conforming to the chosen tint for each room. Twelve tables of players enjoyed the favored diversion with the charming Miss Helen Green marking the scores.

Little Miss Alice Ruth Green passed the markers.

Out of town guests for this beautiful hospitality were Mrs. Ernest Green and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth of Rosebud, and Mrs. W. S. Ledbetter and her daughters, Mesdames John David of Dallas and W. C. King of Los Angeles, California; and Mrs. W. M. Blair of Audalusa, Alabama.

Mrs. Joe Denson was given a Japanese wall vase as first prize and Mrs. Wm. Woods received a Japanese bridge course as low prize.

A tempting luncheon in two courses was daintily served. The salad plate bearing chicken salad, potato chips, olives, sandwiches and ice tea and the ice plate bearing angel food squares iced in the chosen tins with contrasting Japanese lettering, each plate bearing a miniature Japanese fan as plate favor.

The hostesses were assisted by Mesdames C. N. Green and Will Marek.

MISS GUFFEY RETURNS TO CAMERON TO LIVE.

It is with pleasure that we note the return of Miss Jessie Guffey to Cameron. During her residence at Yoakum she has taught large music classes. She has been especially successful in Glee Club work as the following press reports show.

"Miss Jessie Guffey and Miss Stella Walters presented their pupils in a recital given at the Methodist church on Friday evening. The combination of vocal and violin music was very pleasing and a large audience gave generous applause to the young people and noted with evident appreciation of their advancement during their year's work.

Miss Guffey had some of Hallettsville's song artists as well as those of her Yoakum class.

These singers were evidence of careful training and revealed a wealth of hitherto unexpected beauty for use in the musical circles in the two towns, Yoakum and Hallettsville, in the immediate future. The High School Glee Club, trained by Miss Guffey, surprised the audience, singing two selections which necessitated the carrying of the different parts of the music and doing this in a very creditable manner. In this day when so few men even try to sing, the presence of the young men was a hopeful sign. More such work should be done.

The evening's program was a real treat to Yoakum music lovers and did credit to all concerned."

"The pioneer's Papoose," presented at the Grand Theatre, Tuesday night, by the High School Glee Club under the direction of Miss Jessie Guffey was said to be one of the biggest successes of the season.

The young singers were excellent in their parts and the operetta had a pleasing plot. An undercurrent of comedy ran through the whole production, keeping the audience laughing.

Miss Guffey was complimented for her excellent work in handling the operetta. The members of the Glee club were congratulated as a whole on the good impression they made on their first public appearance in Yoakum.

The funds from the operetta will be turned over to the High School ball team."

BRANCHVILLE 42 CLUB.

The Branchville 42 Club were guests in the home of Mrs. John A. Smith on Thursday afternoon of last week, this being the regular meeting of the club from which Mrs. Smith has not resigned her membership since her removal to Cameron.

Flowers were used to make the attractive new home more beautiful for the 42 players.

At the close of the Spirited games, the hostess served an appetizing salad course.

HISTORY CLUB.

The beautifully shaded lawn of Mrs. A. N. Green gave the setting for a delightful party in the late hours of Tuesday afternoon, arranged by the ladies of Cameron History Club to honor Miss Mary Lake Henderson, who will spend this summer in European travel.

A chosen color scheme of pink and lavender was repeated in the baskets of flowers placed about the lawn, the table covers, and in the game accessories.

The hand-painted tally cards and score cards bore pictures of ocean liners. The game of Travel formed the diversion, each table being a country through which the honoree will travel this summer. Flags of these countries marked the progressions.

Assembled for the party were the resident members of the History Club, visitors, and a group of Cameron girls who have spent the past few months in other cities. The personnel included Mesdames W. S. Ledbetter, J. P. David and Miss Minnie Wolf of Dallas, Miss Reba Cheeves of Fort Smith, Ark., Mrs.

W. M. Blair of Audalusa, Ala., Mrs. W. C. King of Los Angeles, Cal., Miss Ruth Henderson of Waco, and Miss Louise Green of New York City.

A three course luncheon of Fruit cocktail shrimp salad, potato chips, tomatoes with mayonnaise, olives, crackers, Russian tea, brick cream and angel food cake was daintily served by the following young daughters of the club members charmingly arrayed in van-colored spring time frocks: Misses Pauline Green, Olive Henderson, Mary Sue Denson, Katharine Robbins, Katharyn Atkinson and Ruth Kemp.

Mrs. Ben P. Atkinson was toastmistress and Mesdames Katharyn Robbins and Jeff T. Kemp toasted the "Traveler" and the "Prince Charming" she is supposed to meet during her travels abroad.

A mail bag from the "Montclair," the steamer on which Miss Mary Lake will sail from Montreal on June 15th, was presented to her bearing a little gift and a letter from each member of the Cameron History Club.

LELAND GREEN ENTERTAINS.

Master Leland Green, Jr., was host to his young friends on last Friday honoring his friends George Tiffany Moore and George Newton, who will leave within a few days for the Military Academy at Austin for a summer of school work with military features suited to junior boys.

A bounteous repast was generously served by the hosts mother, Mrs. Leland Green, in three courses, the last being ice cream with angel food cake.

The following boys had places at the table, George Newton not arriving in time for the repast: Geo. Tiffany Moore, Richard Marshall, Ralph Wiley, Woodrow Cone, Carroll Green, Francis Easlinger, Roy Easlinger Leland Green, Jr.

FIRST BOTTLE TANLAC BROUGHT HER RELIEF

AUSTIN LADY SAYS SHE NOTICED IMPROVEMENT FROM THE VERY FIRST.

"After all Tanlac has done for me I could not do otherwise than praise it," is the appreciative statement of Mrs. R. R. Slack, highly esteemed resident of 305 East 3rd St., Austin, Texas.

"My experience with Tanlac began four years ago. At that time I was suffering from indigestion so bad I could hardly endure it. I was troubled with gas, heartburn, dizzy spells and, in fact, about all the disagreeable symptoms that come from a disordered stomach. I only weighed 97 lbs., and was so thin, weak and nervous that life was miserable.

"My very first bottle of Tanlac brought good results and six or seven bottles corrected all my troubles and left me feeling fine. Following an attack of the Flu, in March of this year, I resorted to Tanlac and the Tanlac Pills and they soon had me feeling all right again. Tanlac gives me a good appetite, steadies my nerves, brings refreshing sleep, and keeps my whole system in fine condition. Tanlac and the Tanlac Pills have done for me what nothing else would and my gratitude is unbounded."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 Million bottles sold.

PALESTINE CENTER OF SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH.

The Lower Dead Sea region of Palestine has been scientifically explored for the first time, and with great success, Melvin Grove Kyle, President of the Xenia Theological Seminary of Missouri, and head of the research expedition, writes from Jerusalem. The expedition reports the discovery of the fortress of Kir of Moab and the region of Sodom and Gomorrah is determined. Dr. Kyle writes that the mysterious rising of the Dead Sea can now be explained, and the Biblical story of the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah is fully confirmed, but he withholds details of his discoveries.

Palestine is now the center of scientific research. Various expeditions are now exploring the Holy Land with regard to its past as well as to its future. As already reported they discovered the tablets of more than 3000 years ago which confirm the originality of the Hebrew text of the flood and of Noah's ark as recorded in Genesis. That discovery has destroyed forever the Delitsch theory of Bible Bable. Just a number of years before the last war Delitsch and his kind triumphed with the false theory that the account of the flood was copied from Babylonian records. But now it has been proved to be utterly false.

Not only have they made archeological discoveries, but also geological disclosures which concern the future benefit of the Jewish future in Palestine. In the valley of the Jordan on the other side of it, iron and petroleum were unearthed by a Danish expedition. This has done away with the argument against the creation of a homeland for the Jews in Palestine, that minerals, absolutely necessary for the industrial development of a country were not found there. Thus this new revelation is of great importance as it opens for the Holy Land a new prospective. While the finding of the minerals has brought much joy in Zionist circles, yet it has in itself an alloy of sadness because of the fact that part of Palestine has been given over to the Arabs. That part of the Holy Land is part and parcel of the promised land covenanted to Abraham and his children. It originally fell to the lot of two and a half tribes, namely the tribes of Gad, Reuben and half of Manasseh. It is therefore hard to comprehend how Great Britain could transfer to the Arabs that parcel of land which was promised to the Jews exclusively in the Balfour declaration.

TEXAS CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION.

Another big project on foot for the benefit of Texas is the Texas Centennial Celebration, a movement that every man, woman and child in Texas should get behind and boost with all their might.

At a meeting of the directors held in Austin on May 21st additional directors were added and other committees named. This is the biggest thing ever undertaken by Texas, but it can be put over if all hands go to work, and judging from the personnel of the Board of Directors, it is sure to succeed.

If this big project gets under way and is finally put over successfully, too much honor and praise can not be conferred on the originator of the idea, Hon. Cato Sells, Chairman Texas Centennial Celebration, and also manager of the McAdoo campaign in Texas, with headquarters at Dallas.—Ex.

PROMINENT TEXAS WOMEN IN NATIONAL POLITICS.

As evidence that women are rapidly coming into their own, politically, and their advice and approbation on things pertaining to governmental affairs is being sought and appreciated, every day, in every way, the Democratic party already has placed women on its National Committees and Texas Democrats extended this honor, first, to Mrs. Nonie Boren Mahoney, a splendid capable, brainy woman who filled this place with credit to herself and Democracy, but is not seeking a re-election—though she could be if she wanted the place—so another brilliant Texas woman's name has been presented, and as she has no opposition so far, Mrs. Florence Sterling of Houston probably will be the next Democratic National Committee Woman from Texas.—Ex.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES MAKE THIS SUMMER PAY.

In a recent edition of "The Business Training Salesman," a successful business man cites a few facts and figures which, while they are applicable to schools all over the land, are equally applicable to YOU. He says:

"I wonder how many young people have stopped to consider just how much it is costing them...in actual dollars and cents to delay taking up their business training until Fall. If they could but be made to realize that a summer of idleness would cost them from $200 to $400 in cold cash, I believe the Summer Schools conducted by the Business Educational Institutions of the country would be filled to overflowing immediately after the high schools close.

"Here's how it works out: Suppose, for statistics' sake a young man or woman elects to take a business course, beginning Monday, June 9, 1924. Suppose, on the other hand, he or she decides to wait until Sept. 8. It's only a three months' delay and it seems insignificant, but it means graduation JUST THIRTEEN WEEKS LATER than the student who enrolled in June. In those thirteen weeks, the 'early bird' has collected thirteen weekly pay checks amounting in all from $200 to $400 or more."

Do you see the importance of beginning now?

The time for you to enroll is TODAY in the Tyler Commercial College at Tyler, Texas, for a thorough and practical business training. They teach General Secretarial, General Banking, General Business, General Railroad and Western Union, Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Penmanship, Cotton Classing, Civil Service and Radio.

They maintain an Employment Department whose privilege it is to be able to introduce their graduates to business opportunities. The services of that department are free. The student who goes to them earnestly and desirous of making a good record and who completes his course creditably will always find a welcome there.

"Achieving Success in Business," the most interesting book published on Business Education, will be sent to you free. It tells of the work of the students and teachers, describes the courses and opportunities open to each line of work, and the successes of their graduates.

They tell you what they have done for others. Let them tell YOU how they can help YOU. Fill in the coupon below for the large free book. TYLER COMMERCIAL COLLEGE, Tyler, Texas.

FIRST COLLEGE IN TEXAS BEGAN 1840.

By Wm. Eilers.

The home of Texas' first college president and the dormitory for many of the first students of the college, is today the home of an humble Bohemian farmer. In brief this is the sole physical remnant of the first college plant in Texas.

This building, located seven miles from LaGrange, the county seat of Fayette County, served from 1840 to 1859 as the home of Chauncy Richardson, the first president of the college, and his successors in office. Today passersby, noting the tiny windows of the ramshackle farm house and the queer architecture, invariably thrill when they are told that the farm house was once the home of the first college president of Texas.

The college with which it was connected opened its doors in 1840, 84 years ago and almost a half of century before the University of Texas was established. During the first year, 63 students were enrolled in the college and the attendance increased to 100 in the second year.

As far as known, Mrs. Rebecca J. Fisher of Austin is the only person living who attended Rutgersville College. Known and beloved by thousands and for a quarter of a century president of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas, Mrs. Fisher attended Rutgersville college from 1845 to 1848.

In speaking about the college Mrs. Fisher said: "Students attended the college from Galveston, Houston, Austin, LaGrange, and many other points. The main building was a large two-story structure, which stood on a high hill overlooking the town of Rutgersville, an excellent location for an institution of learning. The upper story was used for entertainment as well as for school purposes.

"The dormitory, which I am pleased to know is still standing, was only a short distance from the college. Many of the boarding students lived in the dormitory with the president and his family. I was among those who boarded there."

An analysis of the curriculum of the college indicates that the founders of the first college in Texas were believers in arduous work for the students. Especially was this the case with respect to languages.

Those who were admitted to the classical course were expected to know the English language, Latin and Greek grammar, Caesar's Commentaries, Cicero's Select Orations, the Georgics, Virgil's Aeneid, Jacob's Greek reader, and St. John's Gospel in Greek, as well as Davies' Arithmetic, Davies' Algebra, and Ancient and Modern Geography.

The desire of the Methodist Episcopal church to establish itself firmly in the new Republic of Texas was responsible for the founding of Rutgersville college.

In 1837 the Board of Missions of New York sent Dr. Martin Ruter, Dr. Littleton Fowler and Dr. Robert Alexander, all of Alabama, to Texas to do missionary work for the Methodist Episcopal church. They came to Texas the same year the appointment was made and commenced mission work. The following year Dr. Ruter died. His two companions conceived the idea of founding the college and naming it for him. As a result of their suggestion to found a college, ten members of the Methodist church agreed in the summer of 1838 to purchase a league of land for the purpose of locating a settlement and founding a college and to name both for Dr. Ruter. The names of only five of these men have been preserved.

They are: Robert Alexander, D. D.; A. P. Manly, M. D.; Robert Chappell, Franklin Lewis, and John Rabb. A clause in the deed prohibited the sale of liquor and gambling.

PHYSICIANS SAID SHE COULD NOT LIVE

MRS. JEFF MILLS

Milano Woman for Whom Hope Had Been Abandoned, Finds Life and Health In 30 Day Treatment Given by

CHIROPRACTOR

Four Weeks Chiropractic Treatment Succeeds Where Twelve Months in Hospitals and Under Physicians Fail.

Physicians said she could not live. Life was dark indeed and the end seemed almost at hand. Only temporary relief could be promised and that was doubtful.

This is what physicians, specialists and surgeons told Mrs. Jeff Mills of Milano during the twelve months she spent in a vain search for health. The pathway leading through the long months carried Mrs. Mills to hospitals, physicians, specialists, etc., and in each new effort to regain her health the depressing verdict that "no hopes" could be entertained for her recovery finally broke her splendid spirit and she went back to the farm home at Milano to spend what few days were left to her the best she could.

Mrs. Mills was suffering from high blood pressure. The pressure had been as high as 285. She is 57 years old and the pressure at her age should be under normal conditions from 145 to 165. The vain search for relief and health had led to many pronouncements of her ailments but none could offer a cure.

Mrs. Mills lives in Milano on the farm owned by her husband Mr. Jeff Mills. They have been living at Milano for the past 30 years and prior to that time they resided near Davila, so both are well known citizens of the county.

When Mrs. Mills condition became alarming and she could not sleep or find rest she in company with her husband in August 1923 went to a hospital in Temple and through September and October she was in constant touch with the hospital. She was told that nothing could be done for her except to afford temporary relief. Physicians attending her during the twelve months told her the same thing.

About this time Mrs. Mills suffered terrible pains in the rear of the left eye and at times almost lost completely her sight. She was dizzy; blind; could not stand alone; could not eat or sleep; was nervous; did not want water and could not perspire; suffered terribly from constipation and kidneys. When this stage in her suffering had been reached Mrs. Mills was confined to her bed.

This is the condition she found herself in after twelve months in search for health.

A new hope has come to Mrs. Mills, however. Life is sweet again and all the world is a song. Her health has been restored. She will live—she believes for many years. The science of Chiropractic has spared her life for more years with her faithful husband who has been constantly at her side through the long weary months of falling hope. Both are happy today in their new found hope and strength.

On May 1, 1924, Mr. Mills came to Cameron for a consultation with Dr. A. B. Guinn, Chiropractor. On Thursday night Dr. Quinn went to the home at Milano to give her treatment. Instant relief was afforded and she was able to come to the office in Cameron.

After the first two weeks treatment her blood pressure had receded from 225 to 200 and at the end of the fourth week the pressure had gone to normal which ranges from 145 to 165.

In all she has been given 31 adjustments. To relieve her blood pressure 20 adjustments were necessary, so severe was the case.

Mrs. Mills feels perfectly well now except a slight discomfort of the stomach and her vision isn't perfectly normal at times.

In a statement explaining the ailments and the treatment of this case Dr. Quinn said:

"Mr. Mills first came to my office and told me about the condition of his wife. He told me his wife was gradually growing weaker and was confined to her bed and that physicians at the Temple Hospital had given no hopes for her recovery. I hesitated about even going to see her because I knew a case with blood pressure this high and suffering such pains in the head was liable to die at any time before anything could give relief. I had handled some cases of high blood pressure before successfully but none as weak as this one. I made my first visit on May 1st. A chiropractor looks for the cause of disease and removes the cause. When the cause of a disease is removed, nature will get you well. This is done by adjusting the vertebrae of the spine that are out of alignment and relieving the pressure on the nerves that supply the different parts of the body with nerve force. In this case, the principal nerves affected were the ones supplying the heart and kidneys. After the first adjustment she began to perspire some and rest better and in two weeks time she was much improved and her family physician announced her blood pressure had gone down 25 points.

Here's what the folks of Halsell Farms in the heart of the wonderful South Plains of Texas are enjoying:—

Rich soil that raises ¼ to ½ bale and more of cotton to the acre. Farmers who have been raising cotton here for three years can show this as an average. Many have done much better. But cotton is not your only crop—corn, alfalfa, wheat and other crops are being grown here profitably and it is one of the best cattle and hog sections to be had anywhere. No boll weevil. Ideal climate—winters and summers temperate. Plenty of good water. Good schools and churches. Good transportation facilities. A ready market for crops and livestock—and profits!

$25 An Acre— A low price on this land where farming really pays. No more than rent would cost you elsewhere—and 15 years to pay. Settlers here are satisfied. And they are real farmers who know good soil and good opportunities. Over 200 farmers who are making homes here see prosperity ahead. Halsell Farms are situated around Amherst, Texas, on the Santa Fe Railroad.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH IS DESECRATED BY VANDALS

FINGERPRINTS TAKEN AS INVESTIGATION STARTS INTO OFFENSE.

Tuesday night on his return from the barbecue of the Lions Club Rev. J. T. Love, pastor of the Episcopal church, found a light burning in the robe room of the church and sent his son over to investigate and to turn off the lights.

The key to the door was found to be missing and Rev. Love began an investigation. One of the candles on the altar was found broken and bits of it scattered about the floor. The collection plate was found removed from the altar and another plate the church knew nothing about was found.

The prowlers went in an adjoining room and disarranged some of the materials and in another room wrote obscene language in conspicuous places.

City Marshal Ray Robinson in his investigation has found that some children were seen playing there about eight o'clock.

The desecration of this church recalls to mind the frequent robbery of the Baptist church during recent months and the desecration of the Catholic church last fall in which the vessel containing the blessed sacrament was stolen and the sacrament thrown upon the floor. The Knights of Columbus promptly posted a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the robbers but no trace of them has been found.

It is urged that drastic efforts be made by the officers here to curb desecration of the church buildings.

Edward C. Shaw Given Diploma In Medicine

Gaston, a distinguished Georgia physician, who went to Brazil after the Civil War, but later returned to Atlanta to live where his daughter Miss Kate Gaston met and married Dr. E. N. Shaw. Coming as he does from two families, several of whose members have been physicians, Dr. Edward N. Shaw, Jr., will bring to the practice of his profession the tendency and aptness for the work which is a great stimulus, toward success. Many years of training at the University of Texas both in Austin and in Galveston have been won by his own personal efforts and for three years he has pursued his studies in the medical department of Emory University and now he has won his merited degree.

The Herald congratulates Dr. Edward N. Shaw upon the threshold of his career and bespeaks for him the friendship of the people whom his father served so faithfully and commends the praiseworthy ambition of a devoted mother which has thus far guided the footsteps of this excellent son into his medical career which his own work and efforts have made possible for him.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.

The quality of work being done in our Sunday School is becoming better and better. The Junior and Intermediate Department Superintendents are developing some real leadership in having certain classes conduct the worship service before the class periods. The boys and girls select their hymns, read the scripture lessons, offer the prayer, and conduct in an efficient way the worship service.

Many of our members have bought the book, "What every Methodist Should Know," and will attend the lectures given each Wednesday evening by the pastor on that subject. There has been a hundred per cent increase in subscription's to our church publication, The Texas Christian Advocate.

Mrs. J. L. Clifton has been appointed by the pastor to preside at the pipe organ. She has rendered invaluable service as a member of the choir, and all who know her talents and training in music will be assured that as our organist she will continue to render most valuable service in divine worship. Our choir is composed of about thirty trained voices, and they meet each week for rehearsal.

The Epworth League met last Sunday evening, and was delighted with the presence of Miss Jesse Guffey, the League President. Miss Guffey was a former worker in this church and is well equipped to lead the young people of the church into large er fields of culture and usefulness. The League elected Miss Alice Covan as its delegate to the Texas League Conference which meets next Sunday at Jacksonville, Texas.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

Well-known druggists say everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

The Legislative History of the Commission

By WALTER SPLAWN
Railroad Commissioner of Texas.

The acts of April 3, 1891, required the Governor to appoint three men who should compose the Railroad Commission of Texas. These men were to hold office from the date of appointment until the second Monday after the inauguration of the next succeeding Governor. The Governor had asked for an appointive commission.

Governor Hogg said in his speech at Willis Point on April 21, 1892: "Half the session had expired before any suggestion was made to elect the commission. Never had there been during the fourteen years struggle a bill proposing to elect commissioners. If the Commission should be made elective, then what question could be discussed before the public? What policies could they advocate? My advice would be that if the commissioners are ever made elective they be elected for four or six years, so while one is running for office, the other two many be attending to business."

The people decided to elect the commissioners instead of leaving their appointment to the Governor, but they did accept the suggestion to elect them for a term of six years.

Governor Hogg also suggested that a commissioner should be disqualified from holding any other public office for two years after the expiration of his term. This suggestion was not adopted in the law.

STRAIGHT TALKS WITH AUNT EMMY

On Investing in Mortgages

"Aunt Emmy, what do you think of mortgages as investments?" asked Ethel.

"First mortgages, generally speaking, are sound investments, but not all first mortgages are good," Aunt Emmy replied. "You must exercise care and discretion. If you know all about the property, or if you are dealing with a financial concern that has a reputation for success and honesty, you should be safe. But it is well to seek advice before investing. Go to your bank, talk the whole thing over and be guided by their advice. Real estate transactions are tricky. Better be safe than sorry. If there is any question as to party walls or if the building on property should be even a few inches over the lot line, you would undoubtedly have trouble."

"Even guaranteed mortgages should not be bought on faith. Never buy a mortgage without knowing the value of the real estate it covers and of the property in the vicinity. Be sure a good lawyer looks out for your interest. With your small capital there is too much risk in buying without every safeguard."

"Remember that taxes and insurance must be paid regularly when they are due. You must know that they are paid, and remember, too, that the property you lend money on should be worth considerably more than you are lending."

"What about second mortgages, Auntie, don't they earn more than first mortgages?" inquired Ethel.

"Sometimes they do. Second mortgages are good investments under certain conditions. But it is not advisable for an investor of limited means to buy them. In case the first mortgage should be foreclosed, the holder of the second mortgage should be in a position to protect his interests by being able to buy the first mortgage. That means you would have to have money on hand."

"Oh, Auntie," exclaimed Ethel, "you rather frighten me about mortgages."

"No, my dear, don't feel that way," said Aunt Emmy. "It's all a matter of care and knowledge of conditions. Even if you don't know about them yourself, you can protect yourself by taking the advice of your bankers. Don't trust too much to your own judgment."—ANNE B. AYMES.

Herald per year $1.50.

From the article below it would appear that Zeke Marvin, Grand Dragon of the Ku Klux Klan, was instrumental in defeating Mrs. Van De Watts as a delegate to the National Convention.

It might be pertinent to ask local Klansmen and Klan candidates if they stand with Zeke Marvin in his opposition to Mrs. Van De Watts, chairman of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

THE PROHIBITION ROW.

In another column of today's paper is carried a statement by Mrs. Claude De Van Watts of her intention to start a statewide campaign of education on the meaning of the Waco convention. Mrs. De Van Watts and many of her friends are indignant over the refusal of the Waco convention to send her to New York as a delegate. As president of the W. C. T. U. of Texas her friends believed she was entitled to go as a delegate at large. They are equally indignant over the refusal of the convention to send R. Harper Kirby of Austin, former president of the Anti-Saloon League of Texas.

Mrs. De Van Watts, in her statement, does some broad insinuating, but we might as well come out into the open with some of the reasons why she was not sent to New York. She made a speech before the democratic women advocating a state law prohibiting the sale of whisky by drug stores.

HER SPEECH WAS TAKEN AS A DIRECT SLAP AT ZEKE MARVIN, GRAND DRAGON OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, ONE OF THE POWERS OF THE CONVENTION, AND A DRUGGIST WHOM FEDERAL RECORDS SHOW TO BE ONE OF THE BIGGEST SELLERS OF WHISKY THROUGH HIS DRUG STORES OF ANY DRUGGIST IN DALLAS.

A COMMITTEE OF SEVEN, OF WHOM THREE WERE CYCLOPSES, ONE A TITAN AND ONE THE MOTHER OF A TITAN, WAS NAMED TO SELECT THE DELEGATES AT LARGE TO THE NEW YORK CONVENTION, AND THE NAME OF MRS. DE VAN WATTS WAS SUBMITTED TO THAT COMMITTEE.

But word of Mrs. De Van Watts' speech had already gone forth, and the committee pointed their thumbs down when her name was mentioned. The convention as a whole did not have an opportunity to vote on it.

But what the convention did to R. Harper Kirby is an illustration of what it probably would have done to Mrs. De Van Watts. Kirby was recommended as a district delegate by a majority from his district, but the convention as a whole, acting as it had a perfectly legal right to do, overrode the will of a majority in the district and kicked Kirby out, claiming that he had not been a McAdoo man.
